FRASER COAST What's On

Note from the Editor

Wow, the months are flying by! I can't believe that we are now up to Edition 7. It does not feel like long ago that we were producing our 1st. I would like to thank each and every one of you for your support, for without it we would not have a magazine.

Mid July is the start of Whale watch season, I am so excited. I would like to give a big shout out to the hugely talented Photographer, Michael Smith, from Into the Wild Photography for the fantastic front cover shot. Go and pay him a visit at www.intothewildphotography.com.au

July is a very important month as we celebrate NAIDOC Week. During this week we celebrate the culture and the history of our Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people. All of the events are open to all Australians from all walks of life. The full events list is published in this month's magazine, it is certainly a fun week for us all.

This is a great family event held in Maryborough, full of nanny races, costumes and colour to celebrate everything Mary Poppins. For those that may not know the Author of Mary Poppins, P.L. Travers was actually born in Maryborough in 1899.

To see a full and comprehensive list of what is coming up in the coming months have a look at our website: whatsonfrasercoast.com.au

Whatever you choose to do in the month of July, have fun, love each other, don't sweat the small stuff and live every day as though it is your last. xx

Gentle GIANTS

The Gentle Giants of the Sea Are Almost Here!

Each year the Humpback Whales use our calm, warm, sheltered waters of Hervey Bay to play, stay and interact with us and each other. The Whale watching season runs from mid July to mid November, the mothers show off their newborn calves during the months of September to October. This period is full of fun as we see all their moves from pectoral slaps, breaching, tail slaps and tummy flashes. This is a great time to gather your family and friends and get out on the water to see these gentle giants of the sea up close and personal.

This will be a memory that will stay with you for a lifetime. - Kim Parnell, Editor

The Story of Nala

with Jill Perry

Nala is the patron whale of Hervey Bay. The Hervey Bay community adopted Nala in 2005 as part of the Humpback Icon Project, which celebrates the annual migration and campaigns against whaling.

She was first spotted in 1987 and named in 1996, after the character from the Lion King movie, by a group of children aboard the Oceania Project research vessel. The tradition of the Lion King continued, naming her offspring Simba in 1996; Pumba in 1998; Rafiki in 1999; Mufasa in 2002; Timone in 2003, Zazu in 2006 and Carella in 2009.

By 2010 they had run out of movie names so it was put to the public to name Nala's new calf. Mirrhi, an Aboriginal name meaning 'little girl, was chosen.

It is not the first time an Aboriginal word has been used to name a humpback whale. Migaloo, who is as a "hypo-pigmented" humpback or albino whale, is another famous whale seen on the east coast of Australia. Migaloo is the name Aboriginals use to describe a White Fella.

Humpback whale watching has been operating in Hervey Bay for 30 years after Brian & Jill Perry discovered whales in the bay in August 1987 & started Whale Watch cruises on their fishing vessel. Hervey Bay is known as the Whale Watch Capital as whales stay & play in the calm waters inside of Fraser Island for 4 months each year from July till October. Up to 30,000 humpbacks are expected to migrate along the coast this year with around one third entering the bay to rest & play in our pristine waters.

7 Fun Humpback Facts with Vicki Neville

- They actually have hair, it's a tiny hair follicle sticking out of their tubercles on top of their heads!
- Humpbacks have the biggest pectoral fins of all the species, about a third of the length of their body!
- They are as heavy as 7 African elephants!
- They can eat 1000kg of krill a day!
- Calves stay with their mothers for about 12 months
- Mothers can produce 300-600 litres of milk a day
- Males sing a structured song and don't have any vocal chords

We were lucky enough to have the very charismatic and debonair Celebrity Chef, Colin Fassnidge visiting our region recently, thanks to our very own Dan and Steph. Colin Fassnidge is a Chef of Irish heritage, an Author, and a Judge on the popular television show MKR.

Colin was invited to the Fraser Coast as part of a fund-raiser called, 'One Night with Colin' which was raising funds towards Dan and Steph's 'Big Red Car' in the Dunga Derby. This is a major event for local charity Rally for a Cause.

The event was a sell out, and Colin was a huge hit. Before, during and after dinner he posed for many photos with his fans, glass of red wine at hand. He was extremely down to earth, and has a very quick wit. One thing for sure, every single one of the guests certainly had their 'One Night with Colin', and it will be talked about for years to come.

What was your childhood like growing up in Dublin?

Great, same as anyone else's in the 70's and 80's. Not much cash floating around but we had some great times.

How old were you when you decided that you wanted to be a Chef, and who was your inspiration?

I was 12. I picked up a copy of a book called White Heat – saw this long curly haired guy with a cigarette looking like a rock star and I wanted to be that – well without the cigarette. His name was Marco- Pierre White.

Do you have any words of wisdom for those wishing to follow in your footsteps?

Believe in yourself, work hard, have pride in what you do. I'm a chef first the rest just happened.

How has your role on MKR impacted your career during the last few years?

It has provided a lot more travelling opportunities that may not have happened otherwise – I wouldn't be here in Hervey Bay attending the dinner if it wasn't for MKR.

I read that you are part owner of 4fourteen. How do you balance life between your career, appearances and family?

I am an owner at 4fourteen yes and I do spend time in the kitchen and on the floor there on any given night I am in Sydney. The Balance comes from having a good team at the restaurant, one that I trust to do the job as if I was there. The family let me know when the travel is too much and usually pull the breaks if needed.

What do you cook at home that you never cook at the restaurant?

Pasta, Lasagne and Spaghetti Bolognese it's an easy family friendly dinner

When you are designing a complete meal what factors do you take into account, and how do you achieve harmony and balance?

Where is it, who's eating it, climate, local produce available and who's cooking it

Do you have a special message for the people of the Fraser Coast?

Drink and be merry

Can you share with us a kitchen disaster/ or a funny story from your own restaurant?

I do that better in person, glass of red in one hand.

What is your regular comfort food?

Pizza and a bottle of red wine.

If you were stranded on a desert island what five foods would you want with you, and what would you make?

300 coconuts, Pig, Bottle of Pinot noir – screw cap, Tub of ice cream, Salt and pepper. Cook the pig in fresh coconut, tie all shells together, eat ice cream and drink pinot as I sailed the raft away from the island...

Burrum Coal Festival

Celebrating The Discovery Of Coal: Our Heritage

Written by Mary Reader

The third weekend of July each year sees the population of Howard more than treble as the town and area celebrates its heritage. The discovery of coal in the area in 1863 put Burrum district on the map. Ninety-Four shafts and tunnels were dug employing over 400 personnel. Coal mining continued in the area for some 130 years.

The Festival opens on Saturday morning, July 15th at 9.00am, with the firing of the canon by Maryborough's well-known Town crier and Mary Heritage. Immediately following will be a parade of vintage vehicles, floats created by community groups, animals, the Gympie Light Horse, marching bands and much more to entertain and delight everyone.

Our fantastic Museum has an extensive display of memorabilia of the Coal Mining days. At the Museum on Saturday morning at 11.00am there will be a ceremony to unveil a plaque commemorating all Burrum District Miners killed working in coal mines. Light refreshments will be available at the museum as well.

2.00pm Saturday the renowned "Sheik of Scrubby Creek" will be returning for a great performance on the stage of the Community Centre. The local 'boy' Chad Morgan is always popular with his rare singing style.

William St will be closed on Saturday where Buskers, and food and market stalls will be set up. There will be plenty of heritage engines and skills being demonstrated on the Village Green along with rides for children and more stalls and animal displays.

The Uniting Church Hall will be home to a marvellous Art Exhibition by the local Creative Arts Group. The CWA will be providing their famous morning teas and lunch as well as hosting a Quilt Show by local quilters along with other stalls by local crafters.

Many streets will be decorated with colourful Yarn Bombing in trees and on fences, all the work of 'the locals'.

Don't miss the Scarecrow display up Watkins St. as well as the street art on fences.

Torbanlea Hall will be host to an Antique and Heirloom assessor so make a booking to have your treasures valued. Lunch at the Torbanlea Miners Arms is always a good option – checkout the mural of the Pit Pony while there.

Stay overnight at Burrum River Caravan Park or Torbanlea Cabins and enjoy an evening of entertainment at the Howard School.

In the Community Centre on Sunday 16th at 10.00am there will be a combined church service.

The Village green will again be packed with stalls and entertainment and the band 'Ginn Gang' will be playing Bush Dancing Music from 1.00pm so get your boot scooting shoes on.

Lots to see and do but if you aren't up to walking the town there is a Hop-On-Hop-Off bus to ferry you around.

THE RADIO STAR

If you haven't seen 'The Radiostar' live you honestly don't know what you are missing, with his curly mop of hair, huge smile and engaging eyes, he oozes pure charm. From the moment he begins to play right through until the last note his energy and passion is on display for all to see. In fact it is extremely hard not to break into song while at the same time noticing your body start to involuntarily move to the beat.

The Radiostar's music nostalgically takes me back to my youth. To me it was all about, drum machines, big hair, boom boxes, tapes, chewing gum, leg warmers and tight jeans buckled to the waist. I was young, free and dreaming about the future.

'The Radiostar' is Quinn Hendry's stage name and one he has used well over the years. The name came from the 1979 hit 'Video killed the Radio Star', and I swear that I will now be singing that song in my head for the rest of the day. Starting out, his repertoire was pretty much 70's and 80's music. But as the years have gone by Quinn's song list has grown to include the big hits that we know and love right through to the modern tunes, In fact

While singing and dancing from the age of eight it wasn't until Quinn was sixteen that his dad bought him his first bass guitar and he started his own band, that is when Quinn knew that this was

Quinn is constantly learning songs as they are requested, and said, "I like to think that I'm covering the feel good songs that we've all grown up listening to."

something that he really wanted to pursue. Growing up and listening to records and tapes of The Who, The Kinks, The Beach Boys and Leif Garrett was a definite influence in his life.

Like most kids the first ever instrument to land in his hands was the humble recorder, on the school list of many Aussie kids still to this day, much to the annoyance of their parents and neighbours.

At just fourteen years of age Quinn wrote his very first song and has even recorded some. Quinn also wrote the current jingle for the Maryborough Sports Club. This has been playing on the radio for the past few years.

When asked 'which famous musician he admired', Quinn responded "Prince. I saw him in concert four times and his showmanship was pure genius. He embodied what was great about James Brown, Little Richard, Jimmy Hendrix and Sammy Davis Junior all at once. In my opinion he is the greatest musician popular music has ever known."

Quinn has also been a Roadie for both Jenny Morris and Wendy Matthews to name a few before he joined a show band in the 90's called, 'Countdown'. After taking a seven year hiatus from music after moving to Hervey Bay he decided to go Solo as 'The Radiostar' which he has been doing now for about nine years.

Quinn has now been living in Hervey Bay for over 18 years. When he is not belting out tunes at various pubs and clubs throughout the Fraser Coast Quinn enjoys nothing more than hanging out at home and listening to music.

To find out where he is playing find him on Face book under Radiostar Quinn, or have a look at our Gig Guide in this edition.

SAMBA DREAMS Making It Real

Story by Wendy Rivera

I was receiving a treatment by Cheryl Virgo of Virgos Natural Therapies, when the conversation of my participation in Latin Dancing came up. After some discussion the realisation made evident to me by Cheryl Virgo, of competing at a professional level in Latin Dance ended as a dream that day and became a reality!

In order for me to compete there had to be a competition, on the Net I went and discovered the Australian Latin Dance Championships which are held annually in Sydney. The idea of competing Samba to me was incredibly appealing although being a mother of two young teenagers and working full time, it seemed more than the challenge that I imagined.

Cheryl to the rescue! Cheryl became my Dream Coach Event Planner and together we made it happen. Our first idea was fund-raising as there was a lot of expense to competing on the professional circuit even at Amateur level, so we set out in search of venues to host our first Fund-raising Event. Thankfully the lovely Management at the Bays Water/Oceans Bar and Bistro were more than happy to jump on board. With great success and a beautiful variety of prizes donated by local businesses to raffle off, the night set us off on a very positive road towards several more Fund-raising fun nights and walks later, we had the Australian Latin Dance Championships in clear site. The Hervey Bay Community have been very kind and have supported me throughout my journey with which I am extremely grateful for, while local businesses continued to generously donate prizes for the raffles for each event.

I have been training solid for 17 months with a daily schedule of Dance training, Strength training at Physique Fitness Gym and Running three days a week. The competition is held on 15th & 16th July 2017 at Paddington Town Hall, Paddington Sydney NSW.

I have danced all my life and fell in love with Latin Dancing almost 10 years ago. Realising that it was possible to compete at 47 years old was exciting and the thought that my challenge could encourage, and inspire someone else to get out of their comfort zone and challenge themselves is what drives me and fires my passion even more to achieve.

NAIDOC WEEK 2017

NAIDOC Week celebrations are held across Australia each July to celebrate the history, culture and achievements of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples. It is celebrated not only in Indigenous communities, but by all Australians from all walks of life.

This year's theme is 'Our Languages Matter' in celebration of the unique and essential role that Indigenous languages play in cultural identity; linking people to their land, culture and spirituality through story and song. This year the Fraser Coast NAIDOC Committee has put together daily events across the region, giving people an opportunity to participate in a range of activities and support the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander community in the spirit of reconciliation.

For more information about Fraser Coast NAIDOC week events, please visit our Facebook page and don't forget to like and share!

“NAIDOC”?

NAIDOC originally stood for 'National Aborigines and Islanders Day Observance Committee'.

This committee was once responsible for organising national activities during NAIDOC Week and its acronym has since become the name of the week itself.

Lorna Crane

AN ABSTRACT SHOWCASE

After completing five years of arts training at the University of Wollongong in the mid eighties Crane gained an Associate Diploma of Creative Art followed by a Bachelor of Creative Arts, graduating with Distinction. Crane has been involved with many artist run initiatives and community arts projects over many years, During this time she participated in many solo and group exhibitions. She was also awarded the Sir William Keys Churchill Fellowship researching community arts and mental health in 2002.

Her work has been represented in many group and selected exhibitions – regionally, nationally and internationally. Since her arrival to the rural coastal village of Pambula on the Far South Coast of NSW she has participated in eleven solo shows. She won the Illawarra Art Prize in 1986 and has been acquired by the Alice Craft Acquisition 2007 for mixed media. In 2008 she was the joint winner of the Calleen Acquisition (with Wendy Teakel). Her work is in the collection of the Bundanon Trust.

Career highlights include residencies with the Bundanon Trust, Alice Springs, Broken Hill Art Exchange, Berlin, New Zealand and most recently Venice, Italy. During September 2016 she traveled to Barcelona for a two week residency at Art Print Residence to make a series of unique prints. During February/March 2017 she was an artist in residence at Bull Bay, North Bruny Island Tasmania.

“Over the past few years my work has been about the landscape of place. My abstract landscape inspired works speak about moments of time where narratives formed via my own visual lexicon in an experiential and gestural manner. It is from a place deep within where shapes form and are distilled into fragments of past and present merging together in an abstract form. It is about seeking questions and revealing an intimate personalised glimpse into my inner landscape – both physically and metaphorically - known and unknown.”

For well over two years now I have been making handmade brushes in a variety of mediums in all shapes and sizes. From gathering native plant fibres, found materials, feathers and cotton then binding onto pre-loved brush handles, twigs, driftwood or bamboo it became apparent that each brush held its own story. The story of the places I have inhabited and the landscape of where I live.

It was my intent to push the act of mark making further by creating a more personalized approach to my own visual lexicon. By using the brushes it was like unlocking a language with each brush holding its own unique feel and quality. But it was the unknown or unexpected mark that each brush made that pushes you out of your comfort zone that was appealing - that Lisa of control and a new found freedom that excited me most of all. To then connect in a fresh and exciting way. The brush becoming a keeper of memories - of both remembered times and places.

Brush making has become a synthesis for me - from the utilitarian and rudimentary forms and approach within many mediums - to a journey rich in discovery. The mark making process becoming a conversation between each brush and its maker. From the reveal of the first marks with each brush, to the shapes and forms within the unexpected language that flowed onto paper, canvas, board or cloth. Subtle delicate marks found were discovered along with the calligraphic, bold and unexpected qualities of the brush - embedded in each work. They speak both ‘of the land and from the land’.

It became obvious to me through this form of exploration that artists have this inherent and instinctual desire to create their own unique visual language through a variety of mediums - the act of mark making with handmade brushes has mapped new territory.

A FIRST FOR MARYBOROUGH – ROCKWIZ ARE COMING!

Rockwiz will be hitting Maryborough for the first time, in July for a live show. This tour comprises 31 shows, beginning in Ballarat and performing in places like Bendigo, Hobart, Canberra, Newcastle, Tamworth, Cairns, Mackay, the Gold Coast and Perth. Enjoy many of your favourite segments like, Who can it be now, Million Dollar Riff, The Furious Five, and Contestant Karaoke.

Rockwiz began as a TV show on SBS IN 2005 and is still going strong and proving popular. For those uninitiated it is a music trivia quiz show starring the beautiful Julie Zemiro as the host, Brian Nankervis as the scorer and adjudicator when necessary, Dugald McAndrew as the Roadie who acts as the ‘human scoreboard’. And of course the Rockwiz Orchestra, who very skillfully provide all of the musical clues and the backing music for the contestants and special guests.

A few weeks ago, on a beautiful winters morning in Hervey Bay, Queensland, I made a call to cast member Brian Nankervis who was quick to inform me that he was freezing and at a coffee shop in Ballarat, Victoria, after performing in their first Rockwiz Live Show of this tour, and that he couldn’t wait to warm up in Queensland..... and so our conversation started.

Kim: What is it about Rockwiz that makes it so popular still after all these years?

Brian: We have been doing the show now for eleven years on tv, and almost as long in the theatre. With each show we are getting better at it. I think the fact that we pick contestants from the audience and they in turn get to revisit the past is a great drawcard. There is a certain nostalgia about it as we ask them questions like, ‘What was your first ever concert’ etc.

Kim: While we are on the subject Brian, what was your first ever concert?

Brian: My first ever overseas band was english band, ‘The Kinks’ they were amazing. My first local band was ‘MPD Ltd, they were a Mebourne band who only lasted a couple of years but long enough to leave a lasting impression. Nothing beats live music.

Kim: What can people expect from the live show?

Brian: The show is very similar to what we do on tv, but longer, bigger and louder. There are no cameras so we can be a little bit looser and try a few things without having to worry about camera angles or lighting. It is a very exciting show as it is happening in the moment, it really is quite refreshing. People love it because they love the tv show.

Kim: Have you been to the Fraser Coast before?

Brian: We have never performed in Maryborough before so it is very exciting for us. I have passed through on a family holiday, we stayed in Urangan, Hervey Bay. I actually can tell you all of the suburbs in Hervey Bay.....Urangan, Scarness, Pialba.....Oh what’s that other one, help me out!

Kim: Tor.....

Brian: Torquay, that’s right. That’s funny as I have been to the Torquay in Victoria, it is a beautiful place.

Kim: Do you have a special message to the people of the Fraser Coast?

Brian: We are so excited as we love playing in new venues. Come and see the show. We are all southerners and looking forward to some warm weather. We always bring three artists with us on the road, this is kept secret until the night. Just to entice you we bring a household name, an up and coming talent and somebody who sits comfortably in the middle. So make sure you buy a ticket and we will see you there!

IN ROCKWIZ’S OWN WORDS, ‘DON’T MISS A NIGHT OF HILARIOUS ENTERTAINMENT THAT IS ROCKWIZ LIVE!’

FraserPop Pop Culture Festival

FraserPop is a popular culture festival being held in Maryborough in July. It sounds pretty interesting to me, but what is Popular Culture? Well I did some research to see what is all about and what I found out is that Pop Culture is culture based on the tastes of ordinary people rather than an educated elite. It is the accumulation of cultural products such as music, art, literature, fashion, dance, film, cyber culture, television and radio that are consumed by the majority of a society's population. That's a pretty broad range of things to cover – so broad in fact that the organisers of this event say that they are targeting EVERYONE - catering for people from 4 to 65. There is a huge range of activities on offer from a Nerf Gun range, a Lego room, a Dr Who room, rides and games for young and not so young, lightsaber lessons, life sized Monopoly, Author and artist workshops and the list goes on and on.

So how did this festival come about? It all started with students in year 12 attending Maryborough State High School, deciding to stage FraserPop as part of their assessment for a Diploma in Business. These innovative students are fully in charge of the event and have to take care of the marketing, design and timetabling for the event.

With the help of some local business sponsors such as Hervey Bay Community Bank Branch, Fraser Coast Council, B&H Designs, Zip Print Australia, and Decal Central, the debut of this event will be on the 22nd and 23rd of July at Maryborough State High School.

I am sure this event will be a great success, appealing to so many people, and it is set to become a much loved annual event. More info on FraserPop can be found at <https://www.facebook.com/FraserPopMaryborough/> - hopefully you will all find something that floats your boat - see you there.

Vox Pop

This month I took to the street and asked people about holidays. I was curious as to the kind of destinations that people choose and what they do once they get there. My last holiday was about three years ago, hearing all of the responses made me want to start planning one for the not-too-distant future.

- Editor, Kim Parnell

When was your last Holiday and where did you go?

"Our last holiday was in March we took the family to Singapore for six days. I would definitely recommend it. We spent a lot of time on our feet, and had an absolute ball."

Adam Whitaker,
Sunshine Acres

"Last July we went on a cruise to the Mediterranean on the ship Royal Princess. The cruise was for three weeks, it was such a beautiful ship and we visited some great places. We also got plenty of time to relax."

Frank and Jean
Bach, Dolby

"The last holiday I had was camping at Kilkivan. We were in swags and the kids were in a tent. We went to the Eumundi Markets, the Maleny dairy and the waterfalls."

Jacinta Logan
Takura

"We drove to Canberra a good two years ago, that was our last holiday. We are going for a two month holiday to America in September though and we can't wait. We will be flying and driving all around the countryside."

Sarah Heise,
Torquay

NAIDOC WEEK 2017 | SCHEDULE

Sunday 2nd July

8.30-10am

Bayside Christian Church is honoured and blessed to celebrate NAIDOC Week this year with our Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities here in the bay.

We would love it if you would join us during our 8:30am service.

The morning program will include singing by the Lilly Pilly Choir; a Didgeridoo performance, interviews with four of our Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander church members and more. We will be talking about this year's NAIDOC theme and how important it is for each of us to play our part in the reconciliation process. This is an opportunity to come together to acknowledge and celebrate the history, culture and achievements of our local Indigenous community. Please stay on after for a sausage sizzle, damper with syrup, tea, coffee, and a cake to commemorate NAIDOC Week.

10.30 onwards

Please join us at the Fraser Coast Church of Reconciliation at Scrub Hill for a morning of fellowship and celebration. All are welcome to attend.

Where: Scrub Hill Road, Nikenbah When: 10 am for a 10.30 am start.

Refreshments provided.

Monday 3rd July

Fraser Coast Cultural Centre

Hervey Bay NAIDOC Flag raising ceremony and Awards Presentation.

10am to 12pm.

The public and special guests are invited to attend the official flag raising ceremony and NAIDOC awards ceremony, followed by a light lunch and entertainment. The Fraser Coast NAIDOC Awards are an opportunity to recognise the outstanding contributions that Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Australians make to improve the lives of Indigenous people, promote issues in the wider community, or the excellence they have shown in their chosen field. All are welcome to attend this free event.

Tuesday 4th July

10am-2pm

The Indigenous Development Program Unit with PCYC will be holding their annual Mixed Police and Community Touch and Netball Event.

To accommodate the 5-12 year olds we have added a NRL Skills clinic with Scott Zhara, NRL Development Officer.

Come join in and let's break down the barriers and show we are ONE community.

How long have you been a Chef, and worked at Cafe Balaena for?

I finished my Apprenticeship last year. I have been working at Cafe Balaena since leaving high school in 2010.

Who was your biggest inspiration when you were training to be a Chef, and why?

Definitely many of the chefs that I have worked with in the kitchen over the years. I have learnt many things from them. As far as Celebrity Chef's it has to be Gordon Ramsay, he is an excellent Restaurateur and he has won many Michelin stars. Gordon is incredibly passionate about cooking.

Tell us one of your more memorable moments in your Career?

From time to time we see a famous face here. We have served the musician Timomatic, Guy Sebastian and lot's of politicians.

A memorable moment was the night somebody spilt sauce all over the floor in the middle of the dinner rush. It was our vibrant yellow Seafood Chowder, very difficult to clean up, we all were able to laugh about it afterwards though.

How would you sum up your menu?

Our menu is a winner. We have a menu that you can come back and try any time as there is always something new. We cater for all tastes and all dietary requirements, and we are open for Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner.

What is the most popular dish on the 'Cafe Balaena' menu?

The Ultimate Queensland Barramundi is one of our most popular dishes. It consists of a thick grilled slab of Barramundi with salt water scallops and sautéed ocean harvested prawns in a wine, cream garlic sauce topped with macadamia nuts and served with mixed mash potato and vegetables.

What is the newest trend you see emerging?

Farm to table. People are more aware of where their food is coming from. It is understandable that people want to know the food processes and what goes into it.

Do you use many local suppliers?

Yes. We use Hervey Bay scallops, our whiting and black tiger prawns are from the Great Sandy Straits, so we get these ourselves from the local fisheries. We also shop locally where possible for all of our produce.

What advice would you give a novice just getting into the business?

It is all about work ethic. You have to be always working and never have your hands empty. 'Slow is smooth, smooth is fast', in other words start of slow, keep doing it regularly and you will make less mistakes. Practise makes perfect.

What do you most like to cook?

Pasta's are the most fun. You get to work with proteins like chicken, beef, seafood and vegetarian, and a whole range of other ingredients. At home I like to cook pizza from the base up.

How long have you lived on the Fraser Coast, and what is your favourite thing to do?

I have lived on the Fraser Coast all of my life. I love the beach, swimming and walking. I love all of the businesses in town, and I like to see what they are all doing with food, it is interesting, exciting and different.

What is the strangest item in your fridge right now?

Cuttlefish ink. A great ingredient in some dishes.

"I developed this recipe when our children were young as we didn't eat take away meals very often. They still call it Mum's KFC! It is the only recipe my now grown up Son has asked me for. I often make extras of both the chicken and vegies as they are great to add to a green salad for lunch with a balsamic dressing and crumbed fetta. I hope you enjoy." Julie Pantlin, Bay Reserve Estate.

Ingredients for Chicken

350g chicken breasts
¼ cup plain flour
1 egg
1 teaspoon ginger, finely grated
1 teaspoon garlic, finely grated
2 pinches of nutmeg
2 pinches of salt
190g packet of Panko breadcrumbs (or similar)
Oil

Ingredients for Roast Vegies

Any combination you like. I used: 3 carrots, ¼ pumpkin, 1 sweet potato, 1 zucchini, 3 potatoes, 4 brussels sprouts, ½ turnip.
Keep separate: 1 onion, 2 beetroot's, ¼ cauliflower

Method for Chicken

Cut chicken into 1 – 2 cm thick steaks or nuggets
Using 3 shallow bowls
Bowl 1: Flour
Bowl 2: Egg, ginger, garlic, nutmeg and salt and whisk these together with a fork
Bowl 3: half the packet of breadcrumbs
Coat each chicken piece with flour, shake off excess, then dip in the egg mixture, then into the breadcrumbs.
Place on a plate and put in the fridge.

Method for Vegies

Preheat oven to 180 C.
Peel and cut the onion into 4 pieces, wrap in alfoil.
Peel and cut the beetroot into 4 pieces, and wrap in alfoil.
Cut the cauliflower into 1 - 2cm pieces. Cauliflower takes less time to cook, so add it for the last 5 - 10 mins in the oven.
Cut the other vegies into bite size pieces and place in a plastic bag with ½ tablespoon of oil and shake to coat all the pieces. Then pour onto a large tray lined with baking paper, spread them out, sprinkle with salt and bake for 25 – 35 minutes. Also place the beetroot and onion into the oven in their alfoil parcels. Only add the cauliflower to the oven for the last 5 - 10 mins.

Cooking the Chicken

Heat the oil in a frypan, and test a few crumbs to see if the temperature is right, then place a few pieces of chicken into the pan and cook until golden and the chicken is cooked through. Drain on paper towels.

Plate Up

Transfer the medley of vegies to a large serving plate, add the chicken and onion and top with beetroot and cauliflower. I like to accompany this meal with a glass of Chardonnay.
